Description:

Give your Halloween decorations an extra dose of spookiness and immerse yourself in the dark world behind bars with "Sirius".

Sirius wears an institutional uniform in bright orange and his hands are in chains. His gray, messy hair and wrinkled, furrowed face convey the impression of years of imprisonment and deprivation. His wide-open mouth emits screams and moans that only hint at the sense of despair and suffering he is enduring, while the rattling of chains reinforces this impression. Dark circles frame his tired eyes, which bear witness to the countless nights of fear and hopelessness he has endured, flaring dangerously red.

In any case, Sirius will provide unforgettable scary moments and a gruesome atmosphere at your Halloween party.

The stand-up figure can be placed on a half-height stand and thus reaches a height of approx. 85 cm. The animation of the decorative figure can be activated using the integrated microphone/light sensor, the "Step here" switch pad or wired, manual control. Power can be supplied via battery operation, USB-A cable for 5 V operation via power bank or mains adapter.
